

A Valentines Day to Remember (Cindys Crusades Book 51)

You have my word, Jay. Cross my heart, Cindy DeMatteo reluctantly agrees to forego online shopping and use of her credit cards, wishing it were permissible to smack her husbands head now and then. Still, Jays request isnt unreasonable, given their short term circumstances, and a gal has to choose her battles, keeping an eye on winning the war. Besides, his wistfulness tone, during one part of their Spirited Conversation, had driven a nail through her heart. Now, Valentines Day is approaching, and despite their tightened belts, both Cindy and Jay fully intend to show the other how much they care. Desperate times call for desperate measures, as a series of unexpected finds, comical occurrences, and secret plans lead both of them towards certain disaster, or have they? As with all the entries in her Cindys Crusade series, internationally beloved, From Womens Pens author Susan Jean Ricci has once again woven a rich tapestry of laughter and oh-no moments through a story that remains powerful enough to bring a tear to your eye. You wont want to miss this one!
