

The first night in my new apartment, I wanted to kill him. The laughter in the halls, the banging against the walls, the sound of that girl screaming in ecstasy. It was so loud that I had to call our building manager about him twice. My new neighbor was a rude, arrogant asshole. I can't blame the girl though. His dazzling blue eyes, that body, those tattoos. I had never met a guy quite like him. But then he keyed my car, and I needed to get the police involved. That was the beginning of our heated feud. Little did I know, things were about to get a lot more heated. The cocky bastard was holding onto a lot of big secrets, one of them being that he was an ex-Navy Seal. And when the Navy Seal came to the rescue, I ended up rescuing him from himself in the process. This is a full standalone novel with a happily ever after ending. No cheating!
