

A Chocolate Chip Christmas Kiss

Danielle thinks of herself more as a Plain Jane than a woman a man would call pretty. Its been years since a man paid attention to her. A few days before Christmas she meets Michael, who not only calls her pretty but makes her believe it. Theres something different, something special about him, and his young son.

Michael still wears his wedding band a year and a half after losing his wife. After he meets Danielle, he cant stop thinking about her. A year and a half of struggling to mend his broken heart, shes the first woman who has him wondering if the time has come for him and his son to open their hearts to someone new.
