

His Little Runaway

After crashing into a police officers car while driving drunk, eighteen-year-old Ashley Lewis finds herself sentenced to a correctional facility for wayward young women. Despite her intent to keep a stiff upper lip, however, she is shocked by the way inmates are treated at the facility, and to make matters worse, the warden lets it be known that he intends to single her out for special, intimate attention. In desperation, Ashley makes a run for it as soon as the opportunity arises. When retired Navy SEAL Wes Garner comes across a runaway girl on the road near his cabin, he takes her home with him, planning to find out her story and then alert the proper authorities. But after Ashley explains her situation, Wes knows he cant send her back to the cruel warden, so he offers her a different option. She can stay with him, but living under his roof will mean not only living by his rules, but being treated as his little girl as well. Though Ashley hesitantly accepts Wes offer, it isnt long before her disrespectful attitude earns her a trip over his knee for a painful, embarrassing spanking, and when her naughty behavior continues she quickly discovers that bad little girls get their bottoms punished inside and out. In spite of her shame at being chastised in such a humiliating manner, Wes dominance ignites a desire in Ashley which burns as hot as her well-spanked bottom, and soon she is calling him daddy and delighting in his mastery of her body. But when the time comes to stop living as a fugitive, can she trust her daddy to protect his little runaway?
