

Isn't It Romantic?

99 cents for a limited time only. Kipling Stanton is an out-of-work actor who tries to escape the glare of the spotlight by moving to small town Virginia. When he meets the slightly loopy girl next door, Cody Lang, he agrees to masquerade as her husband for a few days. But before long their sham relationship turns into a real one, and Kipling's falling head over heels for Cody. Is it romantic... or just plain crazy? In Kip and Cody, Fisher offers her readers two attractive, funny and sensitive characters who share great chemistry. In addition to two great lead characters, this book has heart, humor and hot love scenes. - Romantic Times (four stars) Totally enthralling, romantic, and the stuff fantasies are made of... a book that deserves to be read over and over again. - MyShelf Reviews Isn't it romantic? Yes, it definitely is! Ellen has successfully woven a fascinating tale of smiles and sighs... a charming story. - The Romance Studio
