

Nothing Serious

Going...going...GONE! The hammer of her life falls and, overnight, Paige Elliot finds herself leaving the excitement of civilized New York, for the rural safety of the Catskills. With no means of support, she opens a shop mistakenly called Nothing Serious and the adventure in business begins. Battling internet withdrawal, Paige almost nails her hand to the storefront, avoids zoning board jail and falls deeply in love with the blue-eyed antiques dealer next door. As fine and rare as any of the antiques he sells, Jonathan Macklin doesn't trust Paige as far as he can throw his Majorelle cabinet but that doesn't stop him from wondering what getting serious about this quirky, beautiful woman would do to his predictable life.

Stylish, intelligent, and often scathingly funny, Nothing Serious is an unblinking portrayal of the search for self amidst the reckless glamorization of love.
