

Christ and Ourselves (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Christ and Ourselves This little book contains four addresses. Of these the last three were delivered to a company of students at the University of Liverpool, at whose instance they are now printed. They were not spoken in the order in which they appear here. The last two came first. In consequence of what I gathered in personal interviews after these addresses had been given, I judged that the presuppositions upon which they were based were by no means clear. I therefore used the only remaining opportunity of addressing the students for the purpose of explicating some of the ground which underlay the practical appeal of the two earlier addresses. This third address appears in the book as second. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
