

OBrien: A Rocky Romance

Dark and broody or affable and philanderer? Which twin will Mary Kate choose? Following the unexpected death of her father, Mary Kathryn OBrien breaks free from her Philadelphia life with boyfriend Pete the leech and tyrannical Dragon Lady Celia who has stalled her marketing career. Mary Kathryns objective is to shore up the grieving spirits of her mother Rona, in rural Idaho. Rona has other ideas and departs immediately for a driving tour of the US in her new Corvette C7, leaving Mary Kathryn to manage the North Idaho ranch. Thrust into a new life while attempting to rectify inconsistencies in her perceptions of her parents, Mary Kathryn begins to molt into a much different persona. Handsome neighbor Jake, his daughter Jen, and his twin brother Joe, provide a mixed level of rescuing efforts for Mary Kate OBrien. Affable Joe has a reputation for being a ladies man while dark and moody Jake concentrates on his single parent responsibilities. Curious and friendly, Jen accepts Mary Kathryn at face value and the two find common ground with chocolate chip cookies and lemon poppy seed muffins. Both brothers have rock hard abs and fill their jeans rather well but are very different while Pete the leech wont exit quietly. Congratulations! First of my friends to love a man to death. I believe in bucket lists. In having fun and never relinquishing your life. Sage advice from a new friend. Will OBrien take it? OBriens journey across the country is also one of self-discovery. Who is her soul mate? What does the new morn bring? For more information on the Rocky Romance Series and other novels by the author, please visit www.barbaraannkargol.com .
