

Nelle Peterson has finally found Mr. Right. He's handsome, smart, and successful. In fact, she's amazed he's still available. But shortly after her new relationship begins, things start to go wrong. Really wrong. Nelle doesn't really believe in fate, or fairy tales, or magic, but when her boyfriend lets it slip that his ex used to be really into witchcraft, it all starts to fall into place. Will Nelle be able to get past her logical ways and protect herself? Can she keep her boyfriend from falling back under the ex's spell? And now that it's Nelle's turn to learn the ways of witchcraft, what will happen when she tries to conjure up a little revenge of her own? Book length: Approx. 66,500 words (approx. 260 pages).
