

Beautifully Broken

She was broken by darkness and violence...

Jennifer Jones thought she'd left her past behind, but when Maclain Moore crosses her threshold it all comes rushing back. He was to be her roommate, nothing more. Then the leather-clad bad boy reveals something that rocks the very foundation of her structured, fiercely independent life, and the protective wall Jennifer built around herself is shattered. He had faith in a beautiful future. Although she vowed she'd never bare her soul or share her secrets, soon Jennifer finds herself opening up to Mac in ways that make it hard to keep him at arms length. She almost lost her life to a man before and doesn't want to risk getting close to this one. As Jennifer's world spins out of control, she fears their growing passion may become the only tangible thing she can cling to. Can she give in to her feelings for Mac without losing herself?
