

Hank James was the man every woman wanted. His charm ensured that he would never be short of female company, but Valerie Gibson wasn't just anyone. A few weeks of passion turns into something else. Alone and pregnant, Valerie doesn't see Hank again until their son is six months old. Even though he returns, he isn't home for good. Being a restless spirit, he can't stay in one place for long, and leaves again. Finding herself alone time and again, Valerie must make a heartbreaking decision. Whatever she chooses will hurt in the worst of ways. Should she fight the unwinnable fight for their relationship, accept what little stability Hank is able to give, or let him go?
