The evidence is stacking up in Zek Kellington’s favor, and Alisa feels sure they will win. He didn’t rape the girl. He couldn’t have. Wouldn’t have. She believes it with all of her heart. Her emotions are spiked due to the time they’ve spent together working through the various aspects of the case, and she finds herself coveting his attention more than she should. The old feelings are back, stronger than ever. She dreams of a future between them. Too bad reality is a bitch. This book is intended for a mature audience, 18+ only.
