Grace Paullen comes to New York to take classes at Columbia University. She stays with her father because he lives near her school, though they have not seen each other for years since her parents divorce. Now they both are forced to learn about each other. What Grace refuses to tell him is that she is a dreamer, a person whose dreams are likely to come true in reality. She attempts to force away her gift and begins her life as a student. At her fathers house, she meets Jacob Hynes, her future stepbrother, who also attends Columbia, and feels an immediate attraction. Then on her first day of class, she meets Katy Hendrick, who becomes her best friend. Katy introduces her to another student, Michael, whom she ends up dating despite her strong feelings for Jacob. Grace will have to learn how to appreciate her gifts, how they translate into her real life, and where her true feelings lie. Warning: Intended for 18+ readers only
