In the final book of the Dangerous Series Lily faces off with her brother, Junior Digrossi with a plan to save the family that has been made with some of the surviving children of Senior Digrossi. Can she bring down the empire of evil the two Digrossi sons have taken over? Join the group of women and their men as they come together to put an end to their hiding. Lily and the group have found one of the two remaining siblings, in Alex. The young teen who not only finds a family but also begins to trust that they will always be there for him. He joins forces with his siblings and takes a stand to help bring down the Digrossi brothers that have no family bond with their fathers other children. They would just as soon see them all dead. There are twists and turns along the way as the groups ultimate goal is to find the last of Senior Digrossis children before Junior and his brother do. The one sibling who is unable to defend itself against the fate of being part of the Digrossi bloodline. Will they be there in time? Will Lily and the group win against the evil or will they have to continue to hide for the rest of their lives? Warning: Menage
